After working 31 years at Head Office in Finance, Corporate Planning, Internal Audit, and Regulatory / Government Relations, David retired in 2019. He has an economics degree and over the span of his Canada Post career, David was engaged as a key researcher / expert in postal economics, regulation, international postal reform and governance. He has worked on all major CPC mandate reviews undertaken since the 1990's. Additionally, David has collaborated on various international and trade-related assignments and treaty negotiations / disputes under jurisdiction of multilateral bodies such as the Universal Postal Union, World Trade Organization, Comprehensive Economic Trade Agreement and NAFTA (including most recently the Canada-U.S.-Mexico Agreement). In 2016, David served as PAC representative for employees not represented by a bargaining agent and in 2018 as the alternate PAC representative.

Raymond Tsang

Toronto, Ontario

Representative of all active members of the Plan
Member since: November 2021

I am a certified actuarial professional: Associate of Society of Actuaries (ASA) & Associate of Canadian Institute of Actuaries (ACIA). I am still an active member of these two actuarial institutions. I had worked in life insurance and in the pension industries for more than 15 years and previously associated with Foresters, Sun Life and RBC. I had worked on pension valuation for both active and retired lives for both DB & DC pension plans and am familiar with Canadian Pension Regulation. I have worked for CPC (SCLPP-Shift 3 MLOCR section) since 2014.

Peter Whitaker

Orleans, Ontario

Representative of the retired members
Member since: May 2017

Peter Whitaker joined CPC in 1970 and was active in CUPW, serving in many local and national positions, including as negotiator from 1982 to 1999. Since 2016, when CPC came out in favour of converting our Defined Benefit Plan into a lesser Target Benefit Plan, he has been working closely with CUPW, UPCE and CPAA leadership and activists, as well as retiree groups. These joint efforts stopped Bill C-27 TBP. Peter vows to continue to keep you informed and will work to stop any attempt to destroy our guaranteed DBP.
